

The firemen labored with a will, and but for their untimely and determined action, it is more than likely that the greater portion of the hotel would have been destroyed.

It was then discovered that Brady had entered again into the building. Some members of the Hook and Ladder Company then succeeded in passing a ladder from the roof of the inclosed piazza, the south side of the building, and in that manner secured access to his room. On breaking in the window, smoke and flames burst out, but hearing groans inside, the firemen, named Wm. Mead and Samuel Spaulding, bravely rushed in, and though themselves nearly overcome by the smoke, succeeded in bringing the sufferer through the door, and down the stairs. His clothing was scorched to cinders, and his body was horribly burned.

over. In some places the flesh was so much burned there, and from his complaint of inward burning, it was supposed that he had inhaled the flames.
John S. Davison, the member of No. 8 Hose Company who was run over, is not so badly hurt as was at first apprehended. He says he saw an old woman on the corner, and came near running over her. He stopped the carriage to save her, and looked back to see if she was all right.

was safe, when the wheel of the truck, which was not stopped, struck the car and knocked it over. The wheel of the wheelbarrow carried them a run or two in the back, but the two wheels locked in such a manner that while he was wedged in between them, he could pass over him. He is very badly lacerated in many places, and as he cannot move, he is broken, and he will be fit for duty again in a few days. The hotel was provided with two kitchen closets, one of which is entirely injured by the fire. The kitchen breakfast room, and the dining room, however, is ready at the usual hour. No damage whatever has been done to the main building, and the fire will in any way interfere with the regular business of the hotel.

The damage sustained to the furniture and fixtures of Steison & Co., proprietors of the hotel, will not be badly exced $25,000 or $30,000. PUBLIC MEETINGS.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday afternoon, President STEWART in the chair. A large number of bills were acted upon. The monthly report of the Controller was sent in. He recommended the passing of a resolution of appropriation for printing and stated that he would be transferred to that of advertising, later appropriation being exhausted.

Mr. TWEED offered the following resolutions, saying that he had no objection on election day to be witness of courtesy and efficiency of the police, and he thought the duty of the Board to express their opinion: Resolved, That the thanks of this Board are due, and be hereby extended, to General Superintendent Inspector, Captain and men of the Police Department for their efficiency in the maintenance of order, and for courtesy to the citizens on election day.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the General Superintendent.

Mr. PURDY seconded the motion; there had never been, heretofore, so much courtesy and efficiency any election day as that displayed by the Police Department on last Tuesday. He was glad to hear the gentleman make his motion.

Mr. ELY also expressed his concurrence in the resolution, and said that he passed the day in the Common Council. Mr. DAVIS offered a resolution calling the attention of the Common Council, and requesting them to act in recognition of the Board of Supervisors to provide a Court-House in the Park.

Mr. TWEED said all this talk about Judge Pierrepont's signature and all that about your bombast, and believe me, I am not a member of it. Before he was elected he ver knew any man so eager or who ran around so much to get men to help to get his nomination, as this me Judge. He used to have an office in a little street down town, where he did all his business, but after getting his office, he thought he must have costly carpets, large chandeliers, and everything covered with ed, or else he must resign. He had never seen a as a letter as that letter of Judge Pierpont. It was foul slander on every man and woman in New-York. Any man who said that all men and women are fast becoming hogs was not fit to be a Judge in any court. Because such men have the ermine on their solders ideally, they think they must have it

The report of the Board of Estimate on the police expenses for 1861 was read. The total amount of estimated expenses is $1,368,090, to which is to be added 17,450 for expenses in Brooklyn.

After other unimportant business, the Board adjourned to meet next Wednesday at 4 o'clock.

CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS.

The following resolutions were adopted at a special meeting of the Board on the 5th inst., relative to the case of Dr. Covil, for many years physician to the City Prison:

Respectfully, the Comptroller-General of the Department of the Interior, in consideration of his long service as well as pecuniary condition, the proper funeral expenses be paid by a department.

The Commissioners in their investigation of persons confined in the City Prison have in many instances and lunatics awaiting examination before the proper authorities previous to their transfer to the Lunatic Asylum on Blackwell's Island, and who are justly arguable to attribute to the care of the Commissioners of Emigration, and a correspondence submitted as evidence of the just cause of complaint. After from Dr. Simons states that Mary Russell landed on the ship Emerald Isle, in September, 1859, and Margaret Crooke landed on the 31st October, from the same vessel, from the ship Emerald Isle.
